TO THE READER.

THis Collection of English Books in all Volumes, and of most Sciences will be exposed to Sale by Auction, with Duplicates of several valuable Books, Bound and in Quires, with these Printed in the Catalogue, as also most sorts of Bibles of the best Prints; together with Testaments, Common Prayers and Singing Psalms, Book of Homilies, 39 Articles, and Canons, &c. which Proposal in this way of Sale, so manifestly beneficial to the Purchasers, will we hope be very acceptable, because it hath not yet been Essayd by any, and hath in its first appearance a seeming tendency to further the knowledge of ignorant People in the best things at the easiest rate, and may upon Charitable Gentlemen, and Reverend Clergymen have this probable effect, that the Cheapness of these so absolutely necessary Books so disposed of, may invite them to bestow some Numbers among their poor Neighbours or Parishioners, who are not able to purchase what they are capable of reading to their benefit. In short

short what might be further said on this occasion would exceed the bounds of an Auctionary Preface, therefore in Convenient time preceding this Sale, Notice shall be given of the days of Sale for the aforesaid Bibles, Testaments, Service Books, Singing Psalms, Book of Homilies, &c. At which time or days, Proposals shall be made, of the Conditions and Method of selling them, Apparently advantagious and sufficiently Beneficial to the respective Buyers.

This Sale will begin on Monday the 30th day of November 1685. at Petty-Canon-Hall in Petty-Canon-Alley on the Northside of St. Paul's Church-yard, entring into Pater-Noster-Row, from the hours of 9 in the Morning to 12 and from 2 to 6 in the Evening till all the Books are Sould.

Conditions

Conditions of Sale.

1. THAT he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any difference ariseth, the same Book or Books to be exposed again to Sale.

2. That the Books in this Catalogue (not otherwise expressed) are for ought we know perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his choice of leaving or taking them.

3. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the place of Sale; where upon payment thereof the Book or Books so bought shall be ready to be delivered within the Month aforesaid.

4. That every Person not known to some of the company, do give in his Name and place of Abode (or earnest in part of the Books by him bought, if required,) to the end, that the Auction may be managed with honesty and justice to all, so as to prevent the inconveniences that have hitherto ensued by the forgetfulness of some, and design of others, in leaving several parcels of Books on the hands of the Undertakers, to their prejudice, and to the abuse of others that they have out of vanity or humour outbid.

5. That these Books are to be seen together with the Bibles, Testaments, Common Prayers and Singing Psalms, Book of Homilies, 39 Articles, and Canons, &c. for one whole Week before the Auction begins, from Nine till Twelve in the Morning, and from Two till Six in the Afternoon, by any Gentlemen that please to repair to the above-mentioned place.
